Farewell to James Roche

Best wishes to James Roche, Executive Director of the Catholic Health Alliance of Canada (CHAC), as he steps away from this role to a new chapter in his life. For more than 20 years, James has served in a variety of roles within the Association/Alliance and has been an outstanding leader and servant in the ministry of Catholic health. James will be leaving in early fall of 2013. Our heartfelt thanks, James, for all you have contributed!

100th Anniversary

Congratulations to Les Soeurs de Notre-Dame d'Auvergne on their 100th Anniversary of service in Ponteix. (Originally founded in 1917 was Gabriel Hospital; Foyer St. Joseph Nursing Home was founded in 1959.) The celebrations commenced with a Mass on Wednesday, August 21, 2013, with Archbishop Daniel Bohan presiding. A banquet followed, attended by many dignitaries, clergy and honored guests. Superior General Lorraine April and Sr. Bernadette Desseaux from France was in attendance, along with Superior General Marlene DeSilva from Brazil. CHAS Executive Director, Sandra Kary, was honoured to bring greetings and thanks on behalf of the Association. The following day was celebrated with Mass, and a Come and Go Tea in the afternoon.
