Hope Floats: Serving in Health Care as People of Faith

What a unique year of contrast - on one hand, there was great energy and excitement around our various work initiatives, and on the other hand, there was a heaviness around the issue and looming reality of physician-assisted suicide and euthanasia. Catholic health care ministry is always an exercise in contrasts - there are always challenges, and there are always reasons to celebrate. It is with this spirit and determination that we chose this year's theme - Hope Floats: Serving in Health Care as People of Faith. Be encouraged as you read about the work of the Association (from July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016) to see how many ways our hands, hearts and faith are in action.

(Please note: there is separate reporting on Physician-Assisted Suicide and the Catholic Sisters Legacy Recognition Project, as there was considerable contribution offered in these areas, but not held solely as the work of the Association.)

Now in its fourth successive year, the Bishop's BBQ celebration has become an anticipated gathering where the Bishops of Saskatchewan invite and host the boards and staff of both the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan and Emmanuel Care (formerly the Catholic Health Ministry of Saskatchewan). Hosted by Archbishop Daniel Bohan at his home in Regina on August 20, 2015, this group gathered to enjoy an evening of fellowship, networking, and encouragement from the Bishops.

Continuing with the theme of celebration and commissioning, the 2015 fall season started with Compassionate Healers Masses being planned and hosted in each Diocese. These gatherings are for the benefit and intentions of medical personnel, health care workers and administrators, parish nurses, men and women religious in health care ministry and ministry of care volunteers in parishes across the province. The Archdiocese of Regina hosted its Mass on September 9th, at Holy Child Parish with Archbishop Daniel Bohan as the celebrant and homilist. The Prince Albert Diocese held its Mass on September 12th at St. Joseph's Church, where Bishop Albert Thévenot was the celebrant and homilist. The Saskatoon Diocese hosted its Mass on September 29, 2015 at Dormition of the Blessed Mother with Bishop Bryan Bayda as the celebrant and homilist.

CHAS celebrated its 72nd year by gathering for its annual convention and meeting of the assembly in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan on October 19 - 20, 2015 with the theme 'Inside Out: Spirituality & Quality in Health Care.' Highlights of the conference included:

- ♦ Attendance of 175+ delegates to the convention, including Bishop Albert Thévenot who celebrated Mass prior to the banquet and awards ceremony
- ♦ Excellent keynote speakers such as Kenneth Pargament (The Spiritual Dimension of Health Care), Sr. Mary Jean Ryan (On Becoming Exceptional), and inspirational speaker Jennifer Buchanan (Maximize Your Music at Work and Home)

President and Executive Director Report

- ◆ Break-out sessions including a variety of themes and speakers: Danica Liske (A Daughter's Perspective), Jon Gilchrist (Have You Ever Seen a Catholic X-Ray?) and Dr. Joy Mendel (Physician Assisted Suicide - Where Are We Today?)
- ◆ This year's awards banquet included presentation of an Honorary Membership to Shirley McNeil of Saskatoon; the 2015 Mission Award was presented to Larry Stang of Macklin, and the 2015 Moola Freer Palliative Care Award was presented to Scott Parker of the Battlefords.
- ◆ This year's centerpieces were created by the Mont St. Joseph Art Group, with silent auction proceeds of $1100+ going directly back to their art program for materials and future projects

The feedback received was very positive, with participants describing the excellent content they heard, and commenting on the invaluable networking opportunity and encouragement they received.

The W. F. Mitchell Bioethics Seminar, was held on October 7 - 8, 2015, in Regina and Saskatoon for one-hour presentations with Dr. Carol Taylor, PhD RN. Her sessions included themes related to acute, long-term care and duty to care. Dr. Joy Mendel, as the Catholic Ethicist for St. Paul's Hospital and CHAS, planned and promoted this seminar.

Many thanks as well to Dr. Joy Mendel for her continued work with SaskEthics, a monthly newsletter distributed to the Catholic facilities in the province, which offered editorials, an 'ethics question of the month,' and promoted tele-health ethics events and various other seminars.

It was with sadness that we received Joy's resignation this spring, as she announced her departure with a date of April 29, 2016 to move back home to Australia. Over her seven years here in the province, we have benefitted from the work that Joy offered to provide clinical consultations at St. Paul's Hospital (and other Catholic facilities as requested), as well as responding to calls for her expertise from the Saskatoon Health Region and other Regions across the province.

To directly respond to the issue of physician-assisted suicide and euthanasia, CHAS hosted "It's Time to Talk" educational sessions across Saskatchewan (host sites included: Forest Grove Community Church in Saskatoon on May 25; Mont St. Joseph Home in Prince Albert on June 1, and Parliament Community Church in Regina on June 20.) Featuring Mary Deutscher as presenter, the two-hour session included: articulating the definitions of these terms, giving a historical/legal overview on the issue—including discussion and dialogue around the recently passed Bill C-14—and offering a heartfelt discourse on how this issue may negatively affect the most vulnerable in our society. Mary also offered practical suggestions on how to respond which included a challenge to become more involved with crisis help lines, becoming advocates for those with mental health concerns or those with physical disabilities, and volunteering at local long-term care facilities. Another key point of the presentation was the promotion of quality, accessible hospice palliative care, another area in which people can continue to petition their MLAs or provincial leaders to advance.

The 24th World Day of the Sick was promoted and celebrated in various Catholic health facilities on February 11, 2016. The official message of Pope Francis was circulated, along with a reflection entitled, "In Illness and in Health" by Father Leo Walsh, CSB.

CHAS continued the initiative to create 'Leaders Libraries' for all of our facility members across the province, to provide them with great resources to promote the vision and mission of Catholic health care. At the end of December 2015, CHAS mailed each of the 15 facility leaders the book entitled: Walk a New Path by Archbishop Emeritus Sylvain Lavoie. The spring book, delivered in conjunction with our mission tour, Critical Conversations was entitled What Makes you Grateful? Voices from Around the World by Anne O. Kubitsky.

We have received wonderful feedback from the facilities, and look forward to continuing this tradition of building great reading material for our leaders.

We continue to publish our quarterly newsletter - the CHAS Communiqué which serves to highlight some of the happenings in our facilities such as:

- ◆ The 75th Anniversary celebration of St. Anthony's Hospital, Esterhazy, congratulations!

- ◆ Congratulations and welcome to Patricia "Patti" MacEwan on her appointment as CEO of St. Joseph's Hospital/Foyer d'Youville, Gravelbourg on October 14, 2015

- ◆ Congratulations and welcome to Lisa Alspach on her appointment as Manager/CEO of St. Peter's Hospital, Melville on September 8, 2015.

- ◆ Congratulations to Mary Deutscher who was chosen as the successful candidate for a 2016-17 Fellowship in Clinical and Organizational Ethics. The Centre for Clinical Ethics (CCE) in Toronto, with funding from the Catholic Health Alliance of Canada (which includes contributions from provincial Associations, including CHAS), offers a paid, year-long Academic Fellowship in Clinical and Organizational Ethics.

Every Spring we 'hit the road' with Critical Conversations. This practical one-hour forum is designed to stimulate the relevance of mission in relation to the realm of Catholic health care. This year Maureen Preston was invited to facilitate our annual conversation with the question: "If you dare to ask it deeply, what makes you grateful?"

And hit the road we did! From April 11th – 27th, some 3000+ km were traveled, fifteen one-hour conversations were had with 225+ participants in ten facilities (Melville, Estevan, Radville, Regina, Macklin, North Battleford, Prince Albert, Ponteix, Gravelbourg and St. Paul's in Saskatoon). This values-driven conversation about gratitude, within the heritage of Catholic health care, gave participants the opportunity to reflect, inform their conscience and to act upon the invitation to be intentional, creative and engaging about gratitude. Both facility leaders and health care staff commented on how uplifting it was to reflect upon their work and to recall moments where they were personally acknowledged in the care they offered - to patients, residents and each other.

A gracious thanks to Maureen Preston who so willingly agreed to extend herself in this ministry. Her presence was invaluable as someone who has served 'on the front-line' in health care. Her relatable and compassionate approach was very well received.

CHAS is very pleased to announce that “Witness to Mission: a mission formation experience” is the newly chosen name for our mission formation experiential program. The word ‘witness’ is not only a descriptor of those who serve in Catholic health care, it also invites us to have intention about being a witness. Once we had a name, offering artistic expression & branding became the next part of the journey. We are so pleased with the outcome - five interlocking imperfect circles represent the five days of Witness to Mission (WTM). The tree represents branching out to connect with people of different beliefs, backgrounds, or cultures. The shape of the curving cross is representative of the road or journey that those who serve in health care follow in their journey.

The 2015 fall session of WTM had us return a second time to Mont St. Joseph in Prince Albert. From August 31st beginning with Day One till November 18th concluding with Day Five, ten participants journeyed in this rich educational offering. CHAS completed its delivery of WTM to two different cohorts: from January – April 2016 to Trinity Manor with ten participants plus one staff member from Emmanuel Care; and a second group of 16 from St. Paul’s Hospital. The feedback offered by participants of their mission formation and from their Facility Leads was very positive.

Our five teams of facilitators are exceptional – not only in their service, but their unfailing commitment, belief and constant striving to always improve the experience of WTM.

CHAS staff invited our WTM facilitators for a general gathering on June 2nd with six of eleven facilitators in attendance. Our facilitators certainly appreciated the opportunity to meet each other and gather collectively in one room. Each team was able to highlight their day—with their symbols featured at the centre of beauty table, themes brought forward throughout their day, and different adult learning approaches—demonstrating a very holistic approach to mission formation.

Other work of the Board of Directors and staff is the CHAS Vision and Covenant for Catholic Health Ministry for 2015-16. This is a living document that not only communicates and affirms our role as an Association, but serves as a ‘road map’ - offering a direction that outlines our key relationships and how we hope to serve them by articulating the activities/initiatives that are completed, on-going and new. Please note that the updated 2016-17 version will be available at the 2016 annual meeting, and will be hosted on our website - www.chassk.ca.

President and Executive Director Report

The Membership Summary to June 30, 2016 is provided. Regular membership drives (new and renewal) are maintained from the CHAS office.

The provincial Catholic Connections Committee continues to gather in Regina, now meeting bi-annually in the fall and spring (December 2, 2015 and April 7, 2016) This committee is comprised of representatives from

CHAS, Emmanuel Care, the Saskatchewan Catholic School Boards

Association (SCSBA), Campion College, St. Thomas More College, provincial K of C and CWL, and Diocesan and Eparchy offices. Archbishop Daniel Bohan sat as the representative of the Bishops of Saskatchewan. Bert Yakichuk continues to serve as the Committee Chair. A notable initiative under the umbrella of the CCC was the Catholic Sisters

Legacy Recognition Project (see separate reporting on pg 17-18).

A continuing opportunity offered to the Catholic Connections Committee is the publishing of up to 15 articles (8 education/7 health) in the 2015-16 season of the Prairie Messenger that would highlight the work and mandates of both Catholic education and Catholic health. This would mark the fifth season of this initiative.

CHAS continues to support the work of the Saskatchewan Hospice Palliative Care Association, and is particularly committed to furthering Pallium Canada's program - LEAP (Learning Essential Approaches to Palliative and end of life care) - to our member facilities by offering a partial, annual sponsorship.

The decrease in Balance Sheet Assets to $ 779,127 reflects the completion of the Catholic Sisters Legacy Project. The $218,376 of restricted cash and deferred revenue from the prior year were property of the Legacy project.

The Statement of Revenue and Expenses show a surplus of revenue at $6,527. Revenue and Expenditures each include an amount of $220,374 which are related to the Catholic Sister's Legacy Project. Revenue and Expenditures have come in on budget for this fiscal year.

Looking forward, we will continue to take a conservative expectation regarding future earnings combined with an emphasis on expenditure restraint in order to achieve quality and long-term sustainable budgets for each of the programs and projects with the CHAS mission.

A special thank you to the CHAS staff: Sandra Kary our Executive Director, Marissa Alarcon our Executive Assistant, Sandy Normand our Mission Education Coordinator, Mary Deutscher who has served the Association on a part-time contract basis. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members:
Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan

We have audited the statement of financial position of Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan ("The Association") as at June 30, 2016 and the statements of operations, and net assets and cash flows for the year then ended.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Association as at June 30, 2016 and the results of its operations and the changes in its financial position for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Other matter

Without modifying our opinion thereon, we draw attention to Note 7 to the financial statements, which described that the Association's prior year comparative figures were audited by another public practice firm.

5. PROJECT CONTRIBUTIONS AND EXPENSES

The Catholic Sisters Legacy Project allocated $14,000 to the Association in recognition of its administration of funds and project management.

The Association serves alongside a variety of provincial stakeholders on the ad-hoc Bishop's Advisory Group on Euthanasia and Physician-Assisted Suicide, and particularly on its Communications and Education sub-committee which is tasked to bring forth messaging and information on this very significant and all-encompassing issue. The $8,000 of grant monies received from the K of C will enable the development of resources to inform our Catholic audiences of a pastoral response in light of those who might consider physician-assisted suicide as an option. There was $680 in expenditures related to the production of audio-visual materials in the current year.

6. RESTRICTED FUND BALANCES

PROJECT CHARTER SUMMARY

This is the 73rd Annual Convention of the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan, a year also marked by our nation heading into a dramatic shift in policy surrounding end-life-care with the adoption of new laws regarding euthanasia and assisted suicide. However, the Catholic mission to care for sick and dying persons – those most vulnerable among us – remains unchanged. In the shifting seas of public opinion and legal frameworks, our convention theme, Hope Floats, reminds us that we are secure as long we remain rooted in the healing ministry of Christ.

With this in mind, the project team invited a variety of speakers to consider the reality of this new context, yet bring insight and teaching to enhance this hope that we share, this mission that compels us to serve in health care as people of faith. Dr. David Kuhl, with expertise in palliative care and practitioner renewal, will explore how hope can be found and sustained in environments where suffering is ever-present. Following this, Archbishop Emeritus Sylvain Lavoie will bring a theological reflection on hope, revealing the deeper origins of hope and the powerful role it plays in our lives. Mark Pickup, our third keynote, will offer his journey of personal suffering and despair because of his advancing multiple sclerosis and wheelchair dependence, citing his faith and community as the anchor for his hope and healing.

Delegates will be invited to join the dialogue of what brings hope in their lives and work environments by being a part of the two World Café sessions. Facilitated by Leah Perrault of Emmanuel Care, these 'open space' opportunities allow for specific and relevant questions to be discussed. We anticipate a synergy of ideas and energy to be created as movement amongst the conversations develops.

CHAS is also pleased to welcome Phil Callaway as our inspirational speaker. A comedian with a heartfelt message, Phil will share the secrets of discovering God's joy while employing his gift to make others laugh.

This year's silent auction features the work of the residents of Providence Place, Moose Jaw. Please give generously as all proceeds will be given to their artisan group to continue to foster the creative expression of their talented residents.

As Team Leader, I would like to thank all of the volunteers and staff who work diligently throughout the year, bringing together all of the big and little pieces of this annual event. I look forward to seeing many familiar faces at this gathering, and greeting new attendees who will be coming for the first time. I trust that by the end of our time together, we will not only be more mindful, but inspired, to the ways that 'hope floats' in our own lives.

Catholic Sisters Legacy Recognition Project

CHAS was very pleased to be a part of this collaborative project. The following article, supplied by Sr. Teresita Kambeitz (and edited for length), aptly combines both a reporting of the work, and the telling of a great story.

“CALLED TO SERVE”: THE STORY OF A MONUMENT

On October 1, 2015, a monument honoring the legacy of Catholic Sisters in Saskatchewan was unveiled and blessed in Regina at Wascana Park. While the story of the 5,500 Sisters who have served in this province is momentous, the tale of how the monument came to be is itself amazing. It is a story of nine people, members of the “Sisters Legacy Recognition Committee,” who worked together for over three years to bring an idea to fruition.

The story had its beginning in April 2012 when Sandra Kary, Executive Director of CHAS contacted Gordon Self, Director of Covenant Health in Alberta to learn how their organization had planned and successfully undertaken a project to honor the legacy of Catholic Sisters in that province. In a further conversation with CHAS members, Sandy Normand and Bert Yakichuk, it was decided: “We can do that.” The seed was planted.

The initiative was presented at the March 2012 meeting of Saskatchewan Catholic Connections where it was approved and later affirmed by Archbishop Daniel Bohan and the other bishops of the province. A preliminary project meeting was held on June 15, 2012 at the Catholic Health Ministry of Saskatchewan (CHMS later re-named Emmanuel Care) office in Saskatoon. At the table were Leona Burkhart of Regina, EC Board member; Scott Irwin, CEO of EC; Therese Jelinski, CHAS Board member; Tim Jelinski, member at large; Sister Teresita Kambeitz, OSU, historian; Sandra Kary, Executive Director of CHAS; Ken Loehndorf, Executive Director of the Saskatchewan Catholic School Boards Association (SCSBA); and Paula Scott, Lloydminster RCSSD board member. From that point on, the team was committed!

A year later, after seven meetings, the committee with the help of Bruce Acton, CEO of St. Paul’s Hospital Foundation, had done enough background work in order to proceed with fund-raising.

The committee worked diligently and with great cooperation and engagement from the Wascana Centre Authority, ensuring that the parameters of this project fit Wascana’s mandate for the use of the land. Meanwhile, three of the eight sculptors expressed interest in the project. The committee decided to provide guidelines for the monument: 1) it should reflect the Sisters’ contribution to both education and health care; 2) it should depict a sense of community; 3) it should show Sisters in action, as it is their service that is being honored.

On November 13, 2013, Jack Jensen of Prince Albert was selected as the sculptor for the monument.

The next several meetings dealt with numerous difficulties and delays, the main one being the long awaited approval from Wascana Centre.

Finally, at the committee's twentieth meeting on June 20, 2014, a breakthrough was announced - David and Karen Holst of Saskatoon made a very significant donation - and became our lead donors. The committee now had funds! With this, the committee was able to set a goal of wrapping up all fundraising efforts by December 31, 2014. A digital media company, Studio 10 Productions from Regina, was hired and a subcommittee was struck to work with them. Another subcommittee was struck to work with the sculptor, Jack Jensen of Prince Albert.

At the next meeting there was more exciting news. Wascana Centre Authority had identified potential sites for the committee to consider near the Legislative grounds adjacent to Lakeshore Drive and Wascana Lake, between Hill Avenue and the Trafalgar foundation. In addition, Miners Construction had agreed to create the stamped drawings free of charge and also donate the materials and create the concrete plinth that would be the base for the statues!

Other developments unfolded rapidly. Studio 10 producers were to begin interviewing Sisters for the DVD; the names of the 61 religious orders that have served in the province were being researched; at Archbishop Bohan's request, the unveiling would be scheduled during the time that the papal nuncio, Archbishop Luigi Bonazzi, would be visiting the province.

The schedule of the day's events were arranged. The Unveiling and Blessing at 1:30 p.m.; the Mass at Holy Rosary Cathedral at 3:00 p.m.; Cocktails, followed by the banquet at the Doubletree Inn beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Understanding the breadth of work that still lay ahead, Sandra Kary, with the blessing of the Board of Directors of CHAS, offered to serve as the Project Lead in order to effectively liaise with the artist and suppliers and to coordinate all the myriad of details involved in the project. She would serve an average of two days per week for the next eight months. It was decided to have a song composed for the occasion, and to commission Deacon Bob Williston for the task. The song would be performed at the ceremony by elementary school students from Regina.

Excitement mounted as numerous plans were taking shape! Miners Construction installed the plinth in March, 2015. Hayley Wickenheiser, Olympian hockey star, agreed to be interviewed for the DVD.

It appeared that every one of the 350 seats at the celebration banquet would be filled! Remco Memorials, who joined other donors who offered their services in-kind, would transport the statues from the foundry at Mount Nebo to Regina for installation by Miners Construction on September 21, 2015, with Sandra Kary and Greg Miller from Creative Fire in attendance. The monument would be bubble-wrapped and covered with a tarp.

Four coaches from Moose Mountain Bus Lines were to be booked to transport the Sisters to the various venues in the city. A signed bill of sale was obtained from the Archdiocese of Regina, making the Archdiocese the legal owners of the monument.

As the end of the project neared, a final budget of more than $380,000 was achieved, which included a minimum $30,000 fund to be set aside as an endowment fund for ongoing upkeep and maintenance.

Thursday, October 1, 2015 dawned mild, calm and a slightly cloudy day in Regina. Perfect. The stellar events of the long-awaited day unfolded smoothly and happily. Spirits were high. The highlight? Perhaps it was the crowd's delighted gasp and burst of applause upon the unveiling of the monument. It was a priceless moment – worth the three years of meticulous, multi-levelled planning and determined, dedicated work of a very determined and dedicated committee.

The monument features two larger-than-life-sized bronze statues of a Sister-nurse and a Sister-teacher against the background of a Gothic-shaped window featuring a circle with rays flowing from it. At the base is located a plaque listing in historical order the names of the 61 religious orders of Sisters that have served and are serving in the province. It reads:

"Called to Serve: This monument recognizes the significant contributions of more than 5,500 Catholic Sisters to education, health care and social services in Saskatchewan since 1860. The Sisters founded many of the first hospitals, schools, orphanages and homes for the elderly – providing care and support with faith, courage, compassion, and a strong sense of being Called to Serve". Two additional plaques list the names of the donors, the organizations represented on the Catholic Connections Committee and the name of the sculptor.

Physician-Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia

Over the course of the previous year, CHAS has been engaged with the Bishop's Advisory Group on Euthanasia and Physician-Assisted Suicide, an ad-hoc committee called together by Bishop Don Bolen, which brought together a variety of stakeholders and key individuals to the table. Although the group was comprised of primarily those from the Saskatoon Diocese, it certainly held a provincial scope and influence.

With the deadline of February 6, 2016 in view—the date anticipated for the ban to be lifted on physician-assisted suicide—the efforts of this group, and its respective stakeholders, was to continue with advocacy of conscience rights (both individual and institutional), offer continued education on the issue and consider necessary policy preparations.

Certainly, it has been a year where many meetings were attended, letters written, editorials offered and petitions signed. It has been a collaborative effort amongst many, with engagement at every level—local, provincial and federal.

Of particular note, I would highlight these four areas of CHAS engagement:

- 1) “Think About It” factoids —a very big thank-you to Therese Jelinski who researched and penned a variety of factoids on the issue; these were shared throughout the province at the diocesan and parish level for use in bulletins, websites and social media.
- 2) “Finding the Gift” video project—with grant monies successfully acquired from the Knights of Columbus, the Communications and Education sub-committee (of the Bishop’s Advisory Group), is currently working on developing a series of short videos (up to 5) to

Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia

Think About It

The absolute ban on assisted suicide and euthanasia is the norm in all but a handful of countries. Where these practices have been allowed, the evidence shows that safeguards simply do not work, or become struck down over time by higher courts.

consider a positive and pastoral approach to those who may be at their most vulnerable. Rather than a message of fear and lack around quality of life or end of life, these videos hope to capture the gift of life and hope that can be found, despite difficult circumstances. These videos will be shared using websites and social media. Those who sit on this committee include: Kip Yaworski (Saskatoon Diocese), Myron Rogal (Saskatoon Diocese), Mary Deutscher (CHAS), Deborah Larmour (Eparchy), Therese Jelinski (CHAS), and Sandra Kary (CHAS).

- 3) Meeting with provincial government: as part of a broader engagement with various stakeholders on the issue of PAS/E, on May 20, 2016. CHAS was privileged to join with Scott Irwin, CEO of Emmanuel Care, and Larry Worthen, Executive Director of the Canadian Medical and Dental Society, and also a representative for the national initiative—Coalition for Healthcare and Conscience—to speak with the Ministry of Health regarding conscience concerns and the need for quality, accessible palliative care.
- 4) Saskatchewan Interfaith Statement on Freedom of Conscience and Palliative Care: CHAS was privileged to join with the provincial leaders of various faith communities, again at the call of Bishop Don Bolen, to dialogue and develop a joint statement to be offered to the provincial government. On June 21, 2016, Sandra Kary and Mary Deutscher (representing CHAS) joined a contingent of 11 (representing 30+ different faith groups) to present the document to the Minister of Health, Dustin Duncan, as well as leaders of the Opposition party.
