Nomination Process

History

The Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan presented its first Mission Award in 2007 to honor an individual who has exemplified outstanding service in Catholic health care ministry. Since that time, this award is presented during the annual convention banquet.

Criteria

The nominee

- * Has provided leadership in the work of Catholic Healthcare Ministry.
- * Exemplifies the Vision, Mission and Values of the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan
- * has made a particular contribution to Catholic Healthcare in Saskatchewan.
- * is recognized by one's peers as worthy to receive this award.

Eligibility

- * Any volunteer, committee member, board member or staff member (current CHAS staff or board members excluded)
- * Resides in Saskatchewan.
- * Is a CHAS member—via an individual, affiliate, associate or institutional membership.

A candidate may be nominated by any CHAS member.

To nominate an individual for receipt of the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan Mission Award, please complete the form on this brochure, as well as supply the following information:

- * Typed description in 150—200 words of the servant/leadership activities and contributions of the nominee to qualify them for this award
- * List of significant positions held, projects completed or any awards they may have received
- * Up to three letters of support for the nomination
